

Dairyland Tin Lizzies Minutes of November 13, 2016 Meeting

The fall meeting of the Dairyland Tin Lizzies was called to order at 2:11 p.m. by President Gregg Zangl on Sunday, November 13, in the upstairs room of Aidan O'Reilly's Pub & Restaurant in Allenton, Wisconsin.

Members present were:

John & Carol Brodtke
DeWayne Fritz
Keith & Carol Gumbinger
Pete & Shelly Humphrey
Jack & Barb Leonhardt
Gary & Chad Prost
Jim Rodell, Sr.
Sandra Stock
Paul & Debbi Wilcox
Gregg & Pam Zangl, Ford

Richard Edler & Mary
Diane Scheid
Jim & Sandy Hess
Ken Lefeber
Jeffrey Pagels
Denis Pulvermacher
Jim, Jr. and Colleen Rodell, Eric and Ethan
Joe Vrana
Jim Wright

President Zangl requested a moment of silence in honor of past member Rod Prinsen, who had passed away one week earlier. Rich Edler and Jack Leonhardt expressed their feelings of loss and explained that Rod passed away at 1:45 p.m. on November 6 after having a heart pacemaker installed at 10 a.m.

Secretary Jim Rodell, Jr. read the minutes of the April 10, 2016 meeting. Carol Gumbinger moved to accept the minutes of the meeting. Jim Wright seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Vice President Kevin Brusco was not present to give a report.

Treasurer Shawn Gerritts was not present, but submitted a report showing a beginning balance on April 10 of $449.37, income of $441.25, expenses of $199.15, with an ending balance of $691.47. Pete Humphrey moved to accept the treasurer's report. Jim Wright seconded the motion. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS:

President Gregg Zangl reported on the TT truck tour he organized on May 15. The tour included 5 TT trucks and 4 Model T's covering the Germantown and Hubertus areas with some interesting stops.

Diane Scheid reported on the Destination Door County Tour held May 28- May 30. The tour included stops at Pedal Pushers antique store in Denmark, Koepsel's Farm Market in Bailey's Harbor, and a winery. The tour also included an accident involving the Zangl's 1914 Depot hack and a Jaguar automobile.

Jim Rodell, Jr. reported on the Yellowstone Trail tour held on June 4. Ten Model T's attended the tour.

Barb Leonhardt reported on the Wings & Wheels event at the Sheboygan County airport held on Father's Day, June 19. Attendance at the event has been declining.

Rich Edler reported on Tin Lizzie University held at his garage on June 25. Kevin Brusco worked on valves. Paul Wilcox worked on side curtains. Jim Rodell, Sr. worked on plywood Model T silhouettes. While the men worked on Model T's, the women enjoyed an adventurous day of shopping and dining, as reported by Barb Leonhardt.

A report on the Dairyland Tin Lizzies EAA Airventure involvement July 25-29 was that the weather was hot, but close to 1,000 Model T rides were provided by our club this year.

Carol Gumbinger reported on the Horicon Marsh Tour which she organized and was held on August 13. The tour was attended by 15 Model T's.

Gregg Zangl reported on the pre-war tour hosted by the Waukegan/North Shore chapter of the AACA which he and Paul Wilcox attended on October 2.

Jack Leonhardt and Rich Edler reported on the Schmit Brothers Ford dealership car show which they attended on September 17.

Jack Leonhardt reported on the Michigan Jamboree of T's held August 18-20 in the Escanaba area.

Jim Hess reported on the Old Car Festival he attended at Greenfield Village in September. Jim's 1923 roadster received first place in the 1919-1923 automobiles category.

Rich Edler reported on the impromptu tour organized by Ken Lefebber to Pinecrest Village in Manitowoc County.

Sandy Stock reported on a tour organized by her neighbor for antique cars and motorcycles which was held on September 18.

President Zangl reminded members that Jack Leonhardt has Model T videos available to loan. Those available are listed on the Dairyland Tin Lizzies website. Dairyland Tin Lizzies decals are available at $1.25 each.

NEW BUSINESS:

After confirming that members would like a Christmas party, plans were made for a repeat of last year's party.

The Christmas party will begin at 2 p.m. on Saturday, January 7 at Aidan O'Reilly's Pub & Grill in Allenton. The white elephant gift exchange will begin at 2:30 p.m., and dinner will begin at 4 p.m. The cost per person will be $15.00 made payable to Dairyland Tin Lizzies, and the club will pay for the party.

Keith Gumbinger announced his ideas for Tin Lizzie University to be held at Vrana Frame & Body Shop in West Bend on January 21. Tentative topics of study include rebuilding of Holley NH carburetors and front axle assembly service and repair.

President Gregg Zangl is planning to organize a Model TT truck tour on April 29, 2017.

Our spring meeting will be held Sunday, April 9, 2017 at 2 p.m. at Aidan O'Reilly's.

Destination Door County 2017 is on the calendar for Memorial Day weekend, 2017.

Carousel Tour to Waterloo, Wisconsin is on the calendar for August 6, 2017.

President Gregg Zangl discussed the possibility of bringing back Model T Day at the Wisconsin Automotive Museum in Hartford.

Keith Gumbinger, who is a board member of the Model T Ford Club of America, informed members of the Dairyland Tin Lizzies of the matching grant offered by the Wayne County Foundation for the Model T Museum in Richmond, Indiana for the time period of November 7-14. Jim Rodell, Sr. moved to donate $50 in memory of Rod Prinsen and $50 in memory of John Battell to the Model T Museum in time for the matching grant to take place. Rich Edler seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Keith Gumbinger also reported that Jennifer Hollandbeck has resigned as editor of The Vintage Ford magazine, and the search for a new editor has begun. The board has found a 30 year-old Model T owner who has authored two books interested in applying for the position and is willing to serve as interim editor until the position is filled.

Keith also reported on the joint MTFCI-MTFCA 2017 National Tour in Montana. He reminded members to cast their ballot in the MTFCA board of directors election.

Carol Gumbinger moved to adjourn the meeting. Paul Wilcox seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Jim Rodell, Jr.
Secretary, Dairyland Tin Lizzies